THE 2006 FIELD HOCKEY TEAM BROKE A 23-YEAR-CURSE, WINNING THEIR FIRST PLAYOFF GAME SINCE 1983. LEAD BY SENIOR CAPTAINS ROSE AYRES, TARA FITZPATRICK, LAUREN PHILBRICK, JESSICA VALERIO, AND SASHA VILLAHERMOSA, THE TEAM HELD A RECORD OF 8-7-3, BRINGING THEM TO PLAYOFFS.

AYRES AND VILLAHERMOSA SHOWED CONSISTENT SKILL AS DEFENDERS, WINNING THE MVP AWARD AND COACH'S AWARD, RESPECTIVELY. JUNIOR GOALIE MELANIE LOWREY AND VALERIO WERE ALSO VITAL IN PREVENTING GOALS, AND GOT SEVERAL SHUT-OUTS THROUGHOUT THE SEASON. THE OFFENSIVE LINE WAS CARRIED BY JUNIOR CHRIS DiRICO AND FITZPATRICK [UNsung HERO AWARD WINNER], WITH 10 AND 9 SEASON GOALS. DOMINATING THE RIGHT SIDE WERE SOPHOMORE ANISHA GUNDEWAR AND FRESHMAN KELSIE BRYANT, WHO SHOWED IMPRESSIVE DODGING AND PASSING SKILLS TO GET THE BALL UP THE FIELD. ASSISTING BOTH THE OFFENSE AND DEFENSE WERE LINKS PHILBRICK [MIP AWARD WINNER], SARRAH WING, AND DiRICO.

IN A NAIL-BITING PLAYOFF GAME AGAINST BURNCOAT, THE PANTHERS PLAYED STRONG AND SCORED ONE GOAL. BURNCOAT, HOWEVER, ALSO SCORED, TO TIE THE GAME UP. BOTH TEAMS HELD ON AND PREVENTED GOALS UNTIL A DOUBLE-OVERTIME WAS REACHED. THANKS TO THE PANTHER'S EFFORTS, THE OFFENSE WAS ABLE TO SCORE THE GOAL TO WIN, AND WON THE FIRST PLAYOFF GAME SINCE 1983. THE GOAL WAS SCORED BY FITZPATRICK OFF A GREAT PASS FROM GUNDEWAR. THE TEAM ADVANCED TO THE QUARTER-FINALS AGAINST NORTH MIDDLESEX AND FOUGHT HARD TO TRY AND MAKE EVEN MORE HISTORY. DOWN BY 3 GOALS IN THE FIRST HALF, THE PANTHERS MADE AN IMPRESSIVE COMEBACK AGAINST THE HIGHLY-SEEDED TEAM, WITH DiRICO AND GUNDEWAR SCORING TWO GOALS. UNFORTUNATELY, TIME RAN OUT AND THE PANTHERS LOST 3-2, THOUGH THEY KNEW THAT THEY HAD GIVEN IT ALL THEY HAD.

Message from your Principal...

A black and white photograph of Mrs. Carlson, the principal. She is a woman with short, light-colored hair, smiling at the camera. She is wearing a dark top and a light-colored cardigan. Behind her is a bulletin board with various papers and photos pinned to it.

Where have the past five years gone? For many of you the years have flown by while for others it seems like an eternity. High School is a time of learning, making mistakes, learning from those mistakes, and maturing into a young adult ready to face the challenges of the world.

During your five years at Marlborough High School your class has created so many wonderful memories: the nail biting victory over Leominster High School, junior prom in Boxborough, recliner on the deck, 3 different assistant principals, beef stew with the tailgaters, Dessert Theater, and a win over Hudson on Thanksgiving Day your senior year. These are just a few of my memories but you carry so many personal memories of your time spent at Marlborough High School. Hold on to your memories, embrace the lessons learned, remember your friends, challenge yourself and contribute to society.

Have a good life and Thanks for the Memories!
Mrs. Carlson

Message from your Class Officers...

The Class of 2007, we are high school survivors! We commend each and every one of you for your hard work and dedication that brought you to achieve this worthwhile goal.

Throughout these five years, best friends have helped each other get through the tough times by brightening our days with laughter and smiles. We hope that no matter where you chose to go you will continue to surround yourself with individuals who support you and your aspirations.

Be sure to cherish the memories you created here at "Panther Country." We wish you nothing but the best in the future. We'll see you in 2012! Stay forever young!

2007 Class officers, L-R: Vice-President Winston McClean, President Jessica Valerio, Treasurer Shereen Sairafi, Secretary Lindsey Cunningham

My Dear Lyssa
It took my child for me to see
That all the words in the world
Wouldn't mean a thing to me
Without an inside meaning
My child taught me to keep on trying
My child taught me to laugh when I was sad
My child taught me the value of hope
Today my child has taught me to smile
She has taught me to trust in a world I didn't
She has taught me to stand up for what I value
And she has taught me the friendship
That I could have with my daughter

I owe you a lifetime of gratitude

Love, Mom

Think of life ahead of you as if you were creating a quilt, one in which every piece reflects your life - where every block, every stitch, and every fabric reflects the beauty of you are today and who you will become in the future.

Your life quilt - reflects all your deeds, shaped by your words, and enriched by everything you do to make this world a better place for all. Take care while piecing together this quilt - the sewing may be simple, yet there are difficult choices you will make along the way with respect to your deeds, words, and actions.

We were enough for you not long ago,
We were your number one, you told us so,
You still mean the world to us, just so you know
Time changes everything.

Life must go on,
But we loved you first and a place in our hearts will always be yours
From the first breaths you breathed
When you first smiled at us,
We knew the love of parents runs deep
How could that beautiful woman, that's you
Be the same freckled face kid that we knew,
We know all your dreams and hope they come true. Some day you might know what we're going through.

Jessica Marie!!

Christie Auclain

Miss Jean~

You've proven that you can achieve so much even in the face of adversity- never missing a step and never looking for pity. You're so smart, keep up all the good work and we know you'll achieve everything you've ever dreamed of. And always remember, "It's not about the number of years in your life but the number of life in your years."

Congratulations! We couldn't be prouder of you.

Love,
Your whole family

Amanda,
You have the ability to attain whatever you seek. Always aim higher than you believe you can reach. You can learn much from those who have gone before you. Never be afraid to step off the path and head in your own direction if your heart tells you that it's the right way for you. Always believe that you will succeed at whatever you do and never forget the value of persistence, discipline, and determination. You are meant to be whatever you dream of becoming....

Love, All of Us!

Amanda Dupuis

Ashley Cunningham

One cold, wintery night 18 years ago, a precious angel came down to earth to join a chosen family. And she came to us, with her perpetual smile, her hearty laugh, her zest for life, and her heart full of love! From that day on, every moment in our home was filled with joy and adventure and pride and love...

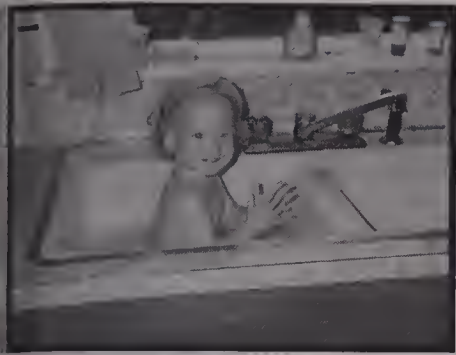

more than we ever imagined could exist! Now the years have passed, and it's almost her time to journey out into the world and share her gifts of love and joy with others. So we'll send you on your way, our angel so very thankful for every moment that you were ours alone! But we know that you have much to teach others now... about loving and learning and sharing and caring. And how lucky each of them will be to have you touch their lives in some special way! So, Ashley, spread your wings and explore the world as you have always been meant to do. But always know that we will be by your side, bursting with love, pride and amazement at the wonderful young woman that our precious girl has become. Thank you for every moment that you have enriched our lives. How lucky for us that we were the chosen family on that wintery night so long ago!

Love always and mostest!
Mom, Dad and Dianna xoxoxo

We couldn't be more proud.

To Our Sweet Brown-Eyed Girl,

Where are you going, our little one, little one?
Where are you going our baby, our own?
Turn around and you're two,
Turn around and you're four,
Turn around, you're a young girl
going out our door.

Where are you going, our little one, little one?
Turn around and you're tiny,
Turn around and you're grown,
Turn around, and you're off
on a life of your own.

Thank you for all the joy and love
you have brought our lives.
You are our lucky star, and we will love you forever.

whole world,
To me you'll always be,

It's A Wrap!

The End.

Marlborough High School Yearbook has had the most successful year ever. As you flip through the meticulously designed pages, we are sure that you oohed and aahhed...fully appreciative of the memories that were captured. It took hundreds upon hundreds of candids, many hours of endless slaving over warm IMacs, and consumption of several bags of popcorn and numerous orders of D7s to finally create this masterpiece. We hope you enjoyed it. Goodluck .
